

EMANCIPATION DAY PARADE

PUNTA GORDA, FL

Punta Gorda's African American community has always celebrated the anniversary of Emancipation on May 20. This 1908 parade is traveling through the center of Punta Gorda, down Marion Avenue, and has drawn a crowd of spectators. (U.S. Cleveland Collection.)

Excerpted from Images of America: Punta Gorda, published by Arcadia Publishing. © 2009 Ann M. Ottoboni and Scott Shively with the Boardman House and the Punta Gorda Historical Society.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

PUBLISHED BY ARCADIA
WWW.ARCADIAPUBLISHING.COM