PREFACE

THE CEMETERIES OF FORT OGDEN

DeSoto County
Florida

The primary purpose of this document is to aid family historians and genealogists in locating the graves of those they know, loved or respected. However the user must remember that the data is not completely accurate. Perhaps the data on the gravestones is correct and one should not overlook the real possibility that an error was made during the transcription and documentation processes.

This document includes data for three different burial grounds in the Fort Ogden, Florida area, namely: i) The Fort Ogden Cemetery, ii) The Mike King Family Burial Ground and iii) the two grave family plot of the Jernigan family. While earlier transcriptions were found for the Fort Ogden Cemetery, no known records exist for the latter two.

All of the data for the Fort Ogden Cemetery burials was derived from the sources listed below, namely:

- o A January 1973* transcription of this cemetery by Richard M. Livingston. (*The "January 1973" date may be in error as one of the death dates listed is September 1973)

A compendium of available records and transcriptions

by the

Charlotte County Genealogical Society

- o The markers/gravestones that existed 31 Dec 1994

It should also be noted that the December 1994 transcription's records were typed in a different format and each one was checked against the 1994 data.

A drawing showing the grave layout of the older part of this cemetery was not found - perhaps none exists. Furthermore the gravesites in the older part are located such that a meaningful map would be difficult to prepare so this document contains two lists - one is alphabetical and the other is sequential (ie it follows the grave-to-grave, 'as-read' paths taken when the 1994 data was transcribed). Actually every grave was numbered as it was read. The numbers are sequential and appear on both lists - thus making it possible to find any grave in this cemetery.

All of the names in this document are printed in a left-to-right format rather than the older and perhaps 'more conventional', vertical-column orientation. As previously stated all of the data was checked against available records and when a discrepancy was found, the gravestone was reread. Of course preference was given to the current information but the most complete name or date was always used. For the most part, the formats and nomenclature used in this document are very simple, however the use of certain symbols and abbreviations was necessary, namely:

PREFACE

The primary purpose of this document is to aid family historians and genealogists in their search of the past. Furthermore it is hoped that it will provide others with the information they need to locate the grave of someone they knew, loved or respected. However the user must remember that the data may not be completely accurate. - o Transcriptions as published in Issue #1 of "The SOUTH FLORIDA PIONEERS" dtd July 1974 and in a second printing of this issue in February 1977.
Note: Richard M. Livingston was the Founder & Editor of 'The SOUTH FLORIDA PIONEERS'.

Acknowledgments

The Charlotte County Genealogical Society wishes to thank Mr & Mrs Russell N. McLenon and Mrs Janette French for the assistance and background information they provided. Also we thank Mr. R. K. Bell of Port Charlotte FL for giving us two of the early transcriptions of the Fort Ogden Cemetery.

Cover

The headstone marker on the cover is from a photograph of the gravestone of J. O. Carr, the original owner of the cemetery property. He was a merchant in this community and was its first elected mayor. He and William A. 'Sandy' Johnson are the only members of Fort Ogden's first elected officials known to be buried in the Fort Ogden Cemetery.

The Fort Ogden Cemetery

SW Cemetery Drive, Fort Ogden, Florida

This cemetery lies a short distance outside the small DeSoto County community of Fort Ogden Florida. Today this village aside Route 17, midway between Punta Gorda and Arcadia, might be considered to be a 'bedroom community', but at one time it was the major cattle shipping port for that part of Southwest Florida. The name 'Fort Ogden' was derived from the name of the early military post, Camp Ogden. This camp was established July 1841 during the Second Seminole War. While the camp was soon abandoned, the frontier area along Peas Creek (now named the Peace River) continued to develop. By 1870, the Fort Ogden area had actually become the focal point for South Florida's growing cattle industry and the home of Ziba King, a merchant, who later was to become the most famous cattleman and citrus grower in Florida.

The civil war, the coming of the railroad, phosphate mining and the terpentine industry each played a substantive roll in the history of this community. In 1887, Fort Ogden was incorporated and the entire area was prospering but not too long thereafter, the hopes and dreams of those who believed that this fledgling community would continue to grow both in size and importance began to fade. While the efforts of the early Fort Ogden area pioneers may not be visible today, the role they and their descendents played in the development of this area and its neighboring communities can be found in the historical documents of Hillsborough, Manatee, DeSoto and Charlotte counties. Perhaps the cemetery transcriptions provided herein will supplement these records and aid historians and genealogists in their search of the past.

Presently there are 695 known graves in this cemetery. Actually all the prior transcriptions list the oldest grave as that of an infant, Edwin B. McClenithan, who was born on the 25th of June 1874 and died on the 15th of July that same year, but today there is a marker for Jane Matthews which says "Scalped September 16, 1836". Records show that she didn't die at that time but the actual date of her death is unknown - her age was listed as 55 in the 1870 census and she died a few years later. This small memorial marker was originally placed where a relative said she had been buried. At that time this land was owned by J. O. Carr. It was part of the property that he sold to John T. G. Crawford on 17 June 1886 but a plat made June 20th of that year does not show the existence of a cemetery although several graves were there at that time. However a few years later (ie. on 17 March 1899) the cemetery was formally established when a one half interest in lot 7 on this plat was sold to the 'Trustees of the Fort Ogden Cemetery' - J.O. Carr, H.A. Ware, T. Holloway & George Noland. The Crawfords also conveyed the other half interest in Lot 7 to the Trustees of the Baptist Church of Fort Ogden on this same date.

Later on 19 July 1967, Elizabeth Russell deeded "All of Block Two (2), Town of Fort Ogden, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter (SW 1/4 of SE 1/4) of Section 13, Township 39 South, Range 23 East, DeSoto Co Florida" to the FORT OGDEN COMMUNITY CEMETERY, a non profit organization c/o Mrs. Albert Barnswell or Mrs. Edna Dees of Ft Ogden. Elizabeth Russell had acquired the property the month before from R. H. and Edla C. Morgan evidently for the sole purpose of enlarging this community's cemetery which by then was full. Edla Morgan was an heir of J. O. Carr, who according to DeSoto county records purchased Block Two et al on 3 August 1901. (Also Joseph A. Duffy and Mary I. Ordway, heirs of J. O. Carr or of his descendents, had relinquished all of their rights to this property to R. H. & Edla Morgan in separate quitclaim deeds executed in 1939.)

The cemetery is presently maintained by the DeSoto County Correctional Institute and the current trustees/administrators of the cemetery are: Minnie Barnwell, Janette French and Fred Grady.

re Richard M. Livingston Listing

No markers were found for the following individuals however the names and their birth, death and/or age data were in Richard M. Livingston's listing published in Issue #1 of the South Florida Pioneers dtd July 1974. A possible location for most of the graves was obtained by reconstructing the probable grave-to-grave path used in 1974 and then correlating it with the December 1994 path structure. In some instances the probable location seemed to be self evident but in one case a meaningful location for the grave could not be found. The page number where the name appears in Issue #1 of the South Florida Pioneers is denoted by - SFP page #.

Ziba King Family Burial Ground

Ziba King Memorial Recreational Park

Fort Ogden Florida

Ziba, his wife (Florida Brewer King), Florida's mother (Elizabeth Brewer) and six of their sons are buried in this family plot which is now a part of The Ziba King Memorial Recreational Park in 'downtown' Fort Ogden. This park was established in 1955 by Mrs. Hazel King Fish and Mrs. Zoe King Lykes to honor Ziba, Southwest Florida's famous and perhaps wealthiest pioneer. Actually Ziba was more than a pioneer, he was an entrepreneur, he was a politician, he was a philanthropist ... yet one should not forget that he was also a family man, he and his wife, Florida had fourteen children. Also above all, Ziba was a good citizen who always could be relied on to help the community and the county as a whole in time of need, his efforts and contributions in this respect are truly legendary.

Burials in this family plot listed in their order of birth include:

Elizabeth Brewer b. 2 Mar 1820 d. 9 Sept 1875 PM	Ziba King b. 12 Mar 1838 d. 7 Mar 1901 PM + Father	Florida Brewer King b. 21 April 1855 d. 11 Mar 1935 PM

* Date calculated from age at death given on existing part/parts of their marker.

The burials here are:

Wm Jernigan b. 16 Jan 1850 d. 26 Feb 1914 PM	Bessie Eula Jernigan b. 14 Sept 1901 d. 24 Nov 1901 PM

Fort Ogden Cemetery

As-Read Listing

The layout of the graves in the older part of this cemetery is quite random which makes mapping the location of every grave impractical. The alternative was to provide two lists, one which is 'alphabetical' and the other, this 'as-read' list which follows the paths taken when the graves were transcribed. A total of 758 grave sites were noted and each was numbered sequentially from 001 to 758. This number is also used to correlate the two lists. The paths through the cemetery are identified using an alphabetical notation starting with the capital letters, ie A through Z, followed by the small letters a through o. Each path follows a line starting with a grave near Cemetery Drive and runs across the cemetery in a direction approximately parallel to Senate Ave - sometimes a line will veer either to the right or left to include graves which fall midway between the lines - some lines may even include back-to-back gravesites where there is some logical reason. The number of graves in each line is specified - for example line A has 27, line B has 08 and line C has 09 ... and the first grave on a few of the lines may be nearer to the center of the cemetery. Hopefully, these two lists will allow one to find a specific grave in this cemetery without too much difficulty.
